

"Prophecies in Season"

Part 1

Know no more the things of the world. By my name you rule and reign (Acts 11:26). In the beginning I was and I am now for those who will follow. You will have untold riches I can do all things through Christ. I have come in this hour to do what I have said in times past. Now is the time to do all I prophesied through my servant Joel. Together we will do all in ushering in a new era of man in the earth I have a plan beginning tomorrow that will shock the earths' financial system I will call this into being. Do not be surprised but I will have my way those things that have been hidden will be revealed, so do not hesitate at what you see I know the ways of men and I have judged these things only believe and receive the wealth of the world. Distribute the means wisely as I guide you lean on me for in me is all power and wisdom. These things have come to past today. Much more is to come.

Part 2

For there has never been a day like this in the earth. The Glory of the Lord shall rise and strike the things that have been hidden men shall know that I am God by the spirit of my witness. Signs and wonders shall be fulfilled for the prophet of Joel is here. My Glory shall cover the Earth and men will know that I am God. The witness shall knock down all who oppose him for he is good. I have sent him and he will prophecy the Lord is good (Psalms 34:8). Not by power not by might, but by my spirit. The hour is short so do not hesitate, but prepare to receive the Lord. The Glory is here and shall remain forever tell all who would receive "The Glory is here" Declare it and I will declare your name. Men have tasted and seen go only declaring the "Glory is here". I am God alone. For we are one in the body with one purpose salvation of men and souls. To God be the Glory. I am filling all with my Glory. Paul Chapman
